

Dear Parents,

Assalamu'alaikum warahmatullahi wabarakatuh,

Alhamdulillah, with gratitude to Allah ﷻ, we are pleased to share with you the MYP Semester Report for the academic year 2025–2026. This report is designed to provide you with a clear picture of your child's learning progress across all subject groups within the Middle Years Programme (MYP).

Our aim is to help you, together with your child and their teachers, reflect on learning achievements and plan meaningful steps for continuous academic, personal, and spiritual growth in line with our vision of nurturing future Islamic leaders who embody the values of faith, knowledge, and good character (iman, ilmu, dan akhlak).

In the MYP, your child's progress is assessed through four criteria (A, B, C, D) for each subject. Each criterion is scored out of 8 points, giving a total of 32 points per subject, which are then converted to a final grade (1–7) according to MYP grade boundaries.

At this stage of the academic year, some subjects may have assessed all four criteria, while others may have assessed fewer. Therefore, if a subject has not yet covered all four criteria, a final grade may not be awarded this semester.

You will also find teacher reflections on how your child has demonstrated the IB Learner Profile attributes, integrated with the values of Islam that guide our school culture. Details about grade boundaries and learner profiles are included at the end of this report.

We encourage you to use this report as a chance to celebrate progress and discuss areas for further improvement with your child. Should you wish to have a deeper conversation about your child's development, you are warmly invited to make an appointment with the respective subject or homeroom teachers.

Thank you for your continuous support and partnership in your child's educational journey.

Wassalamu'alaikum warahmatullahi wabarakatuh,

Kind regards,

Fadhli Darmawan, S.Pd.

The aim of all IB programmes is to develop internationally minded people who, recognizing their common humanity and shared guardianship of the planet, help to create a better and more peaceful world.

Inquirers

We nurture our curiosity, developing skills for inquiry and research. We know how to learn independently and with others. We learn with enthusiasm and sustain our love of learning throughout life

Thinkers

We use critical and creative thinking skills to analyse and take responsible action on complex problems. We exercise initiative in making reasoned, ethical decisions.

Principled

We act with integrity and honesty, with a strong sense of fairness and justice, and with respect for the dignity and rights of people everywhere. We take responsibility for our actions and their consequences.

Caring

We show empathy, compassion and respect. We have a commitment to service, and we act to make a positive difference in the lives of others and in the world around us.

Balanced

We understand the importance of balancing different aspects of our lives—intellectual, physical, and emotional—to achieve well-being for ourselves and others. We recognize our inter-dependence with other people and with the world in which we live.

Knowledgeable

We develop and use conceptual understanding, exploring knowledge across a range of disciplines. We engage with issues and ideas that have local and global significance.

Communicators

We express ourselves confidently and creatively in more than one language and in many ways. We collaborate effectively, listening carefully to the perspectives of other individuals and groups.

Open-minded

We critically appreciate our own cultures and personal histories, as well as the values and traditions of others. We seek and evaluate a range of points of view, and we are willing to grow from the experience.

Risk-takers

We approach uncertainty with forethought and determination; we work independently and cooperatively to explore new ideas and innovative strategies.

Reflective

We thoughtfully consider the world and our own ideas and experience. We work to understand our strengths and weaknesses in order to support our learning and personal development.
